

SV Eintracht welcomes referees from all over the world

Lueneburg. On Saturday and Sunday, the Siegfried-Koerner-Stadium is once again the navel of the world of referees: the 13th International Referee Cup is organized by the referees of SV Eintracht Lueneburg. With 19 football-refs largest department in the area, the team has again managed to secure commitments from colleagues from all over Germany and Europe. In addition to the participants from Finland (Lahti) and Austria (Vienna), there are some colleagues from Poland (Poznan).

The highlight of the event, however, will be the referees who will lead the matches of this tournament: Gladys Lengwe (FIFA referee from Zambia) and Bernadettar Kwimbira (FIFA referee's assistant from Malawi), both Olympic runners 2016 and also participants at the Women's Football World Cup in Canada in 2015.

From Lüneburg, a team from the Lueneburg Referees Association as well as the referees of the MTV Treubund from Lueneburg participate, and from the neighborhood the ref's from Uelzen (as title holder) and Harburg. The Escheburger SV as well as the SC Vorwaerts/Wacker 04 Billstedt confirmed their participation. It has always been very important for the referees to give the opportunity to get a sporty community experience and to exchange ideas and experiences with colleagues from all over the world, whether they are FIFA referees or referees in the lowest classes to learn a lot from each other.

The tournament will played on 4 small fields and starts on Saturday at 3pm and on Sunday at 10am. The final round will be played at around 3pm on Sunday. On Saturday the "Players Night" takes place from 6pm, a big raffle with many prizes is in process.
